

Invitation

September 2005

Dear Students:

We at Nikko Citigroup wanted to be among the first to write you at the start of the school year to congratulate you on your achievements thus far and to wish you the best of luck with your studies during 2005-2006. We would also like to take the opportunity to invite you to our upcoming campus presentations.

Nikko Citigroup, a joint venture of Citigroup and Nikko Cordial Corporation, has had a successful track record since its inception in March 1999. Our business combines the global investment banking capabilities and technology of Citigroup with Nikko's leadership position in Japanese capital markets and over 70 years of relationships with top Japanese corporations. We changed our name from Nikko Salomon Smith Barney to Nikko Citigroup in April 2003. This name change followed Citigroup's global re-branding initiative to consolidate all corporate and investment banking activities, including the Salomon Smith Barney name, under the Citigroup brand.

In order for us to continue our first class business, we need first class people. We would like to meet with you to discuss the opportunities for you in our firm. We are looking for people who are fluent in Japanese. Our presentation will be conducted in Japanese.

A team from Nikko Citigroup, including Investment Banking, Sales & Trading and Research will be hosting the presentation/receptions for students interested in our firm as scheduled below:
